

SCORE is here to help.

The coronavirus has hit small businesses hard, but SCORE's 10,000 mentors can help you during this difficult time.

What is SCORE?

For over 50 years, SCORE has served as America's premier source of free business mentoring and education.

As a resource partner of the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA), SCORE has helped more than 11 million entrepreneurs through mentoring, workshops and educational resources since 1964.

Please visit our Coronavirus Small Business Resource Hub for coronavirus (COVID-19) business assistance and SBA loan information.

SCORE is committed to helping businesses like yours through the unprecedented challenges from the coronavirus outbreak.

While you may be facing uncertainty, there is one thing you can be certain of: SCORE is here for you.

More than ever, challenging times call for trusted business guidance and resources. We offer practical advice and insightful tips based on years of experience.

Remote Mentoring

Our expert mentors offer free, personalized assistance to address the current crisis to help you adapt your business. Remote mentoring services are available via phone, email, video and chat. Find a mentor today.

Workshops and Events

We continue to offer SCORE LIVE webinars and online workshops. In-person local chapter workshops may be hosted online or postponed. Please check with your local chapter for updates.

In addition to free mentoring and online workshops, SCORE is collecting resources to answer your critical questions during the COVID-19 pandemic—and afterward.

Please check back frequently for updates as we are adding resources regularly.

How do I get financial support?

For many small businesses, financial support during the outbreak is critical. Loans, lines of credit, credit cards, crowdfunding and more can provide the funding needed.

The U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) provides small business loans through their Economic Injury Disaster Loan Program \(EIDL\). The EIDL loans offer small businesses up to $2 million due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Learn More About SBA Loans

The recently-passed Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act created major initiatives that will soon be available from the SBA and other governmental agencies.

Learn More About the CARES Act

Other funding sources and opportunities to rescue small businesses are mobilizing regularly. Here are some small business grants offered by SCORE partners.

- Nav: Small Business Grant Contest. Nav is giving grants to small businesses that tell a story of preservation and opportunity in the face of a past or ongoing challenge. Apply by May 30th
- Facebook: $100M in Grants for Small Businesses. Facebook is offering $100 million in grants to support over 30,000 small businesses in over 30 countries. Facebook will be accepting applications for grants in the coming weeks.

Please check SCORE's website to find more resources on how to get financing to run your business:
<https://www.score.org/>